

Community Harvest Charter Schools

"What we grow the community harvests."

Dear Prospective Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in Community Harvest Charter School. We are a college and career preparatory school that emphasizes high academic achievement and character development. Entering our tenth year of operation, we remain committed to maintaining an environment where students can feel safe and flourish as they pursue their educational goals. We remain steadfast in delivering educational resources and opportunities that support academic and career exploration. We believe that learning best takes place when all stakeholders are involved...the school's staff and faculty, the students and their families and members of our community.
